Fall 2021

Dear Friend of the Perkiomen Valley Library,

Just when you thought it was safe to go back in the library....

Just kidding – we have been here all along! As always, over the past year-and-a-half Perkiomen Valley Library has been responsive to the needs of the public, while always keeping health and safety in the forefront. We've provided electronic library cards, curbside book pickup, a wide variety of on-line programs and electronic resources, all to keep connected with you, our loyal patrons. Now that we have resumed our normal business hours, we have also restarted some of our programming outside, most notably Tail Waggin' Tales (Read to a Dog) and Stories in the Park. We are pleased to see more of you out and about, and we are hoping to begin offering more in-person programs very soon.

No matter what is happening when this letter finds you, we want you to know we are so grateful that you have supported us through the ups and downs of adapting to the Covid pandemic. However, Perkiomen Valley Library is still not out of the woods. We are greatly in need of your support to provide the best quality service in a building which we are still trying to beautify and update for 21st Century library patron needs. Your tax-deductible donation to the Perkiomen Valley Library, a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization, will go a long way towards helping us continue to thrive as a strong community presence. For your convenience, donations can be made via check or PayPal on our website at the following link: <https://www.paypal.com/us/fundraiser/charity/2185366>. Please also consider remembering Perkiomen Valley Library in your estate planning.
